

Chamber Of Commerce.

George L. Edmonds was elected president of the Rockville Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday night at its first fall meeting. He succeeds Donald A. DeLashmutt. W. Ernest Offutt was elected vice-president. Harold C. Smith was re-elected secretary and William F. Prettyman treasurer.

The following were elected to the executive committee: D. A. DeLashmutt, W. B. Burdette, Milbourne Ward, J. Brawner Nicholson, B. Steinburg and John E. Oxley. The following were appointed delegates to the Montgomery County Civic Federation: Wm. F. Prettyman, Harold C. Smith, Geo. H. Lamar, with J. Roger Spates, Geo. L. Edmonds and F. Barnard Welsh as alternates.

A special committee was appointed to take up the matter of a new market site under consideration in Washington City: O. W. Anderson, Philip W. Gates, Curtis L. Ward, J. E. Oxley and G. L. Edmonds. The following were appointed a committee to consider the proposal to develop the water power of the Great Falls: G. H. Lamar, H. C. Smith, J. B. Nicholson, Leonard L. Nicholson and D. A. DeLashmutt. A motion to amend the constitution to admit women as associate members was tabled "without prejudice."